

You Be the Judge — Verdict Sheet

Court of Oyer & Terminer · Salem, Massachusetts · 1692

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Directions

For each case: fill in the first four boxes before you click your verdict on the screen. After the lesson shows what really happened, fill in the last box.

Person	My verdict (circle one)	The strongest evidence against them was...	Would it count in court today?	What really happened (after the reveal)
Sarah Good	Guilty		Yes	Executed
	Not guilty		No	Lived
Rebecca Nurse	Guilty		Yes	Executed
	Not guilty		No	Lived
Tituba	Guilty		Yes	Executed
	Not guilty		No	Lived
Bridget Bishop	Guilty		Yes	Executed
	Not guilty		No	Lived
Giles Corey	Guilty		Yes	Executed

The pattern — look at your table

Word bank: lived · was executed · zero

1. Every accused person who confessed _____.
2. Every person who refused to confess and was found guilty _____.
3. Of the people who were executed, how many had evidence against them that would count today?

Think and write

1. Finish this sentence: “The evidence in these trials was not fair because...”

2. Remember the cheating-scandal offer. Finish: “The cheating deal is like the Salem trials because... but it is different because...”

3. Finish: “If I had been accused in Salem, the hardest choice for me would have been...”
